

Cooperstown, NY GETAWAYSM

America's Most Perfect Village®

P.O. Box 8888, Cooperstown, NY 13326
888.875.2969 • www.cooperstowngetaway.org

Enjoy the Benefits of Membership

- National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum
888.425.5633 (prompt #3)
- New York State Historical Association
888.547.1450 or 607.547.1425

C O M M U N I T Y • C A L E N D A R • 2 0 1 0

...includes events in and around Cooperstown and is provided to enhance your GetAway plans. Updated regularly... throughout the year.

'til April 15, 2010

• Winter Fun at Glimmerglass State Park Visitors can go tubing (we provide the tube), cross country skiing, ice skating, snowshoeing, snowmobiling, ice fishing and winter hiking! A warming shed is on premises with hot chocolate served! In the Town of Springfield, 1527 County Highway 31, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Questions? 607.547.8662

Wednesday, January 6

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
No You Shut Up (R, 2009, 96 minutes, USA) Directed by Jonathan Parker. A comic tale of modern love and art. A fashionable contemporary art gallery owner in Chelsea, New York falls for a brooding composer of "new" music in this comic take on the state of contemporary art. Adam Goldberg (Saving Private Ryan) plays the composer, whose compositions call for paper crumpling, glass breaking and bucket kicking. Marley Shelton (Grindhouse) plays the gorgeous Chelsea art expert whose latest show introduces an artist (Vinnie Jones) whose work utilizes taxidermy and household objects. Further complicating the affair is the composer's brother Josh (Eion Bailey), whose highly commercial art work—the financial backbone of the gallery—is sold to corporate clients discreetly out of the gallery's back room. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. 800.754.0797

Friday, January 8

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The Fenimore Art Museum
Soldier's Daughter Never Cries, R, 1998. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., on the west lake road, 5798 State Highway 80, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
No You Shut Up (R, 2009, 96 minutes, USA) Directed by Jonathan Parker. A comic tale of modern love and art. A fashionable contemporary art gallery owner in Chelsea, New York falls for a brooding composer of "new" music in this comic take on the state of contemporary art. Adam Goldberg (Saving Private Ryan) plays the composer, whose compositions call for paper crumpling, glass breaking and bucket kicking. Marley Shelton (Grindhouse) plays the gorgeous Chelsea art expert whose latest show introduces an artist (Vinnie Jones) whose work utilizes taxidermy and household objects. Further complicating the affair is the composer's brother Josh (Eion Bailey), whose highly commercial art work—the financial backbone of the gallery—is sold to corporate clients discreetly out of the gallery's back room. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. 800.754.0797

• Doubleday Dancers

Winter Dance. Soft-soled shoes only. Refreshments served. 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. at the Ray Taylor Elementary School, 21 Walnut St. Cooperstown, NY

Saturday, January 9

• Cooperstown Concert Series presents Crooked Still
Crooked Still's riveting sound is unmatched in music today. They present folk and bluegrass in a unique fashion that has caught the ear of critics and audiences. Singer Aoife O'Donovan has been described by USA Today as "a bluesier Alison Krauss... the newest darling" of the music scene. 7:30 p.m., Sterling Auditorium, Cooperstown High School. For tickets: 607.547.1812 or visit CooperstownConcertSeries.org

Wednesday, January 13

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
La Danse The Paris Opera Ballet (Not Rated, 2009, 159 minutes, France, subtitles) Directed by Frederick Wiseman. Unprecedented access to one of the world's greatest ballet. Documentary master Frederick Wiseman turns his attention to one of the world's greatest ballet companies, the Paris

Opera Ballet. As the camera roams the opulent halls and multiple corners of the Palais Garnier, the film follows the production of seven ballets. From rehearsal studios to costume rooms to administrative offices, we get extensive access to choreographers as they work with dancers in both classical and modern styles. You needn't be a dance aficionado to marvel at the beauty and athleticism on display. While the film devotes much of its time to watching impossibly beautiful young men and women in rehearsal, Wiseman doesn't ignore the reality that all this art costs money. In addition to exploring the choreography of Mats Ek, Wayne McGregor, Rudolf Nureyev and Pina Bausch, it also delves into the coordinated and collaborative work involved in administering this massive company. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. Questions? 800.754.0797

Friday, January 15

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The Fenimore Art Museum
The Terminal, PG-13, 2004. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., on the west lake road, 5798 State Highway 80, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
La Danse The Paris Opera Ballet (Not Rated, 2009, 159 minutes, France, subtitles) Directed by Frederick Wiseman. Unprecedented access to one of the world's greatest ballet. Documentary master Frederick Wiseman turns his attention to one of the world's greatest ballet companies, the Paris Opera Ballet. As the camera roams the opulent halls and multiple corners of the Palais Garnier, the film follows the production of seven ballets. From rehearsal studios to costume rooms to administrative offices, we get extensive access to choreographers as they work with dancers in both classical and modern styles. You needn't be a dance aficionado to marvel at the beauty and athleticism on display. While the film devotes much of its time to watching impossibly beautiful young men and women in rehearsal, Wiseman doesn't ignore the reality that all this art costs money. In addition to exploring the choreography of Mats Ek, Wayne McGregor, Rudolf Nureyev and Pina Bausch, it also delves into the coordinated and collaborative work involved in administering this massive company. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. Questions? 800.754.0797

Wednesday, January 20

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
Me and Orson Welles (PG-13, 2009, 113 minutes, USA)
 Directed by Richard Linklater (Before Sunset, Waking Life).
 Newcomer McKay is uncannily brilliant as Welles. The director sets this romantic tale against the backdrop of New York theatre, specifically the 1937 Mercury Theatre production of Julius Caesar as it's being re-imagined by a brilliant, impetuous 22-year old genius named Orson Welles (Christian McKay). Zac Efron plays a teenage student who lucks his way into a minor role in Welles' legendary production as the story chronicles the rollercoaster week leading up to opening night as the charismatic-but-sometimes-cruel Welles stakes his career on this risky production while the young newcomer mixes with everyone from starlets to stagehands in behind-the-scenes adventures bound to change him. Co-starring Claire Danes and Ben Chaplin. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. Questions? 800.754.0797

Friday, January 22

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The National Baseball Hall of Fame & Museum Finding Nemo, G, 2003. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., 25 Main Street, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
Me and Orson Welles (PG-13, 2009, 113 minutes, USA)
 Directed by Richard Linklater (Before Sunset, Waking Life).
 Newcomer McKay is uncannily brilliant as Welles. The director sets this romantic tale against the backdrop of New York theatre, specifically the 1937 Mercury Theatre production of Julius Caesar as it's being re-imagined by a brilliant, impetuous 22-year old genius named Orson Welles (Christian McKay). Zac Efron plays a teenage student who lucks his way into a minor role in Welles' legendary production as the story chronicles the rollercoaster week leading up to opening night as the charismatic-but-sometimes-cruel Welles stakes his career on this risky production while the young newcomer mixes with everyone from starlets to stagehands in behind-the-scenes adventures bound to change him. Co-starring Claire Danes and Ben Chaplin. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. Questions? 800.754.0797

Sunday, January 24

• Film Screening/Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
The Gates (2009, 98 minutes) Directed by Antonio Ferrera and Albert Maysles. In 1979, artists Christo and Jeanne-Claude proposed one of the largest public art installations in history: a "golden river" of 7,503 fabric-paneled gates in Central Park. The documentary chronicles the artist's 26-year commitment to transform the winter darkness of the iconic park into a garden of light and color. Weaving together archival interviews with committees, politicians and on-site conversations with visitors, the film ultimately poses the question: what is art? Free and Open to the Public. Shows at 1:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. Questions? 800.754.0797

Wednesday, January 27

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
The Road (R, 2009, 108 minutes, USA) Directed by John Hillcoat. A masterpiece of adventure, The Road is adapted from author Cormac McCarthy's (No Country for Old Men) beloved, best-selling and Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, which boldly imagines a future in which men are pushed to the worst and the best that they are capable of, a future in which father and son are sustained by love. Viggo Mortensen leads a stellar cast (including Charlize Theron, Robert Duvall and Guy Pearce) in the epic, post-apocalyptic tale of the survival of a father and his young son (Kodi Smit-McPhee) as they journey across a barren America that was destroyed by a mysterious cataclysm. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. 800.754.0797

Friday, January 29

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The Fenimore Art Museum
The Heiress, NR, 1949. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., on the west lake road, 5798 State Highway 80, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

Friday, February 5

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The National Baseball Hall of Fame & Museum Tall Tale, PG, 1995. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., 25 Main Street, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

• Film Series / Munson-Williams-Proctor Art Institute
The Road (R, 2009, 108 minutes, USA) Directed by John Hillcoat. A masterpiece of adventure, The Road is adapted from author Cormac McCarthy's (No Country for Old Men) beloved, best-selling and Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, which boldly imagines a future in which men are pushed to the worst and the best that they are capable of, a future in which father and son are sustained by love. Viggo Mortensen leads a stellar cast (including Charlize Theron, Robert Duvall and Guy Pearce) in the epic, post-apocalyptic tale of the survival of a father and his young son (Kodi Smit-McPhee) as they journey across a barren America that was destroyed by a mysterious cataclysm. Shows at 2:00 and 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium at 301 Genesee St., Utica. 800.754.0797

• Cooperstown Concert Series presents Ollabelle None other than Elvis Costello has praised the beautiful voices of Ollabelle, one of the best combos in roots music. Ollabelle has toured and shared the stage with such legends as Diana Krall, Alison Krauss and Ralph Stanley. Talented musicians all, the group contains Amy Helm, daughter of The Band's Levon Helm. 7:30 p.m., The Ottesaga Resort Hotel in Cooperstown. For tickets: CooperstownConcertSeries.org / 607.547.1812

Friday, February 12

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The Fenimore Art Museum It Happened One Night, NR, 1934. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., on the west lake road, 5798 State Highway 80, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

Friday, February 19

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The National Baseball Hall of Fame & Museum The Muppet Movie, G, 1979. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., 25 Main Street, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

Friday, February 12

• Cabin Fever Film Festival / The Fenimore Art Museum Big Fish, PG-13, 2003. "Cabin Fever Hits the Road"—the 2010 series will feature films that include travel on Friday nights in January and February. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., show begins at 7:00 p.m., on the west lake road, 5798 State Highway 80, Cooperstown, NY 13326. Please use main entrance. Refreshments available.

Mark Your Calendar !

National Baseball
Hall of Fame
Induction
Weekend

2010 • July 23, 24, 25, 26

